PETITION TO REVIVE UNINTENTIONALLY ABANDONED APPLICATION

Sir:

In response to the Notice of Missing Parts dated June 28, 2004, the Applicants respectfully request that the Examiner consider the Remarks made below.

30

Remarks

Applicant petitions the Examiner under 37 CFR 1.137(b) to revive the now abandoned application and accept late payment of the application fee, late oath/fee surcharge, and inventor declaration. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 41(a)(7), the Applicant has enclosed the proper payment of the required fees, a statement that the entire delay in payment of the fee was unintentional, and the fee for filing a petition to revive an unintentionally abandoned application.

35

Applicant states, pursuant to the requirements of 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b)(3), that the entire delay in filing the required application fee payment was unintentional.

40

Applicant recently discovered the existence of the Notice of Missing Parts after calling the USPTO on February 23, 2005, to determine the status of the case. Applicant has not received a copy of the Notice of Missing Parts. Upon discovering the existence of the Notice of Missing Parts, Applicant determined that the application would now be 5 abandoned. Therefore, Applicant hereby submits the proper petition to revive an unintentionally abandoned application, as Applicant was unaware of the Notice of Missing Parts.

Applicant's general procedure upon receiving correspondence from the USPTO is 10 to place the item in a bin to be docketed. Next, Applicant will enter the due date and/or date the correspondence was received into Applicant's patent case tracking software. Applicant reviewed the case tracking software page for the present application and found no entry of a Notice of Missing Parts due date or receipt of a USPTO Filing Receipt, which accompanies a Notice of Missing Parts. Therefore, Applicant submits that a 15 Notice of Missing Parts was never received by Applicant. Additionally, as Applicant believes the Notice of Missing Parts was never received as a result of USPTO error, Applicant requests that the enclosed petition fee be waived.

Applicant therefore requests that the application be revived and the late payment 20 of the application fee and inventor declaration be accepted by the Examiner as an unintentional abandonment of the application.

Concluding Remarks:

In view of the foregoing, Applicant believes the application is now in condition 25 for examination. Accordingly, early issuance of this application is respectfully requested. Should the Examiner have any questions regarding this response or need any additional information, please contact the undersigned at (310) 589-8158.

The Commissioner is authorized to charge any additional fees which may be required or credit overpayment to deposit account no. 50-2691. In particular, if this 30 response is not timely filed, the Commissioner is authorized to treat this response as including a petition to extend the time period pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) requesting an extension of time of the number of months necessary to make this response timely filed and the petition fee due in connection therewith may be charged to deposit account no.

50-2691.
